INTRODUCTION for DR. FLOYD A. FALANY

Let me introduce Dr. Floyd A. Falany, the President of Reinhardt College in Waleska, Georgia.

A native Floridian, Dr. Falany is the youngest of seven children. At the encouragement of a high school teacher, Dr. Falany entered Florida State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in History in the College of Arts and Sciences. While taking post-graduate classes at the University of Florida, he taught high school and then, for several years, taught an educational television class in Jacksonville, Florida. He moved from Florida to the University of Georgia where he was graduated with a master's and doctorate from the Department of Counseling and Human Development Services. He also taught and worked in the College of Education for six years prior to his tenure at Reinhardt College.

In his 25 years at Reinhardt, he has served as the Academic Dean, Dean of the College, Executive Vice President and Dean and, for the last 14 years, President.

He donates much of his time to community, county and state civic affairs. In May of 1994, the Cherokee County Bar Association recognized Falany's outstanding community service by presenting him with the 1994 Liberty Bell Award.

Well known and respected in the community, he belongs to the Canton Lions Club and Gideon's International. He is past president of the Cherokee County Chamber of Commerce and has also served on its Board of Directors. He is a member of several Boards of Directors including the First Colony Bank in Alpharetta, Georgia and the Fincher-Loughridge Foundation, Inc. in Dalton, Georgia. He also serves on the Salvation Army's Statewide Advisory Committee for "SHARE," a project designed to aid needy families with their energy costs.

An innovative educator, he has been involved in numerous post-graduate learning experiences and professional organizations. He is on the Boards for United Methodist Church's National Association of Schools and Colleges and the National Council of Independent Colleges. He also serves on the Advisory Board of the East-West Foundation, a Japanese/American group which arranges international educational opportunities.

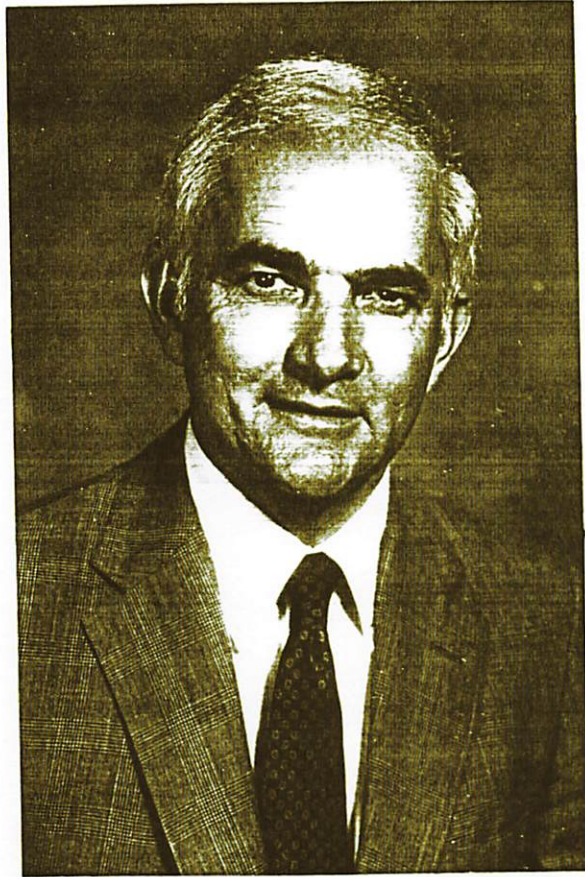

You won't talk with Dr. Falany very long before learning about his family. He and Fay (Woodall) Falany have four daughters: Angie, Candy, Cortney and Kelly.

Dr. Angie Falany Hulse, an OB-GYN, graduated from Reinhardt, Wesleyan and Mercer Medical School. She and her husband, Dr. Mike Hulse, live in Fort Payne, Alabama with their son Drew and daughter Mckinzey, born June 6, 1998! After completing two years at Reinhardt, Candy Falany Wilbanks completed her nursing training at LaGrange College. She and her husband Kip live in Canton, Georgia with their two children, Holden and Porter. Cortney is a music major at Georgia State and Kelly is attending Oglethorpe University.

The Falanys live on the College campus and attend the Waleska United Methodist Church.

Reinhardt, a four-year Methodist College located approximately an hour's drive north of Atlanta, was founded in 1883. The College's current enrollment is 1,034.

Please join me in welcoming Dr. Floyd Falany.
